

Schenectady County Bar Association
Call for Awards Nominations

The Schenectady County Bar Association welcomes nominations, including self-nominations or nominations of other SCBA members, for its Association awards described below.

- Young Lawyer: To a lawyer age 35 or younger who has demonstrated both legal proficiency and community involvement.
- Lawyer in Service to the Community: To acknowledge the contributions of a lawyer who has performed outstanding service of a social or civic nature in the county bar, community, or charitable activities; gives of him/herself to the community in an outstanding way that benefits our community and reputation of the legal community.
- Lawyer of the Year: To a lawyer who has demonstrated a high degree of professionalism, extraordinary ethical conduct and outstanding legal proficiency; advanced a significant legal cause or obtained an unusual result; earned local, regional or national distinction in the practice of law; provided, through the performance of legal services or bar-related activities, extraordinary benefits to the legal community and/or the community at large.

Please provide the nominee's name and contact information, how the lawyer meets the particular award criteria, and nominator's contact information. To submit a nomination or to seek more information, contact: info@schenectadycountybar.org.